MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 2

His Penance Cut Short.

A dispatch from Oltawa says the leading sensation in religious circles for the past three weeks was the disappearance of the Rev. Mr. Martin, formerly a priest of the Church of Rome, but latterly identified there with the various Protestant bodies. The with the various Protestant bodies. The sensation was increased on Sunday night when it was known that Mr. Martin appeared with his wife at the morning service in Russell Hall, the French Prebyterian Courch on St. Catharine street. Martin was at one time in orders in Normandy, and then went to Ellinois, where he obtained a charge. He there fell in love with his housekeeper, a pretty girl of 20, whom he married, and in consequence was obliged to married, and in consequence was obliged to leave the church. He come to Montreal, where several Montreal clergymen interest-ed themselves in his behalf. He made a ed themselves in his benefit. He made a living teaching French, occasionally preaching against the errors of his former church, and writing on the subject in the religious press. All at once he disappeared, and the gravest rumors were affect to the effect that he had been abducted by the Catholic Church. Then the Archbishep of Montreel, Mgr. Fabre, addressed a communication to the public to the effect that Mr. Martin bad of his own free will returned to the fold of the church, and implying that his marriage was illeral, and his two children illegiti-mate. Intense indignation was created in the Protestant community. It was believe i he had been spirited away and sent into perpetual penance, and money and sympathy poured in for his wife. Before leaving he was well supplied with money, it was be-lieved, by the church, to which presumably he had returned. The sensation has been abated by his reappearance. Mr. Martin says that, having become discouraged through ill health and inability to provide for his family, he made an agreement with the Archbishop to return to the church on condition that his family would be provided for. He then went down to Antigonish, N. S, to the Trappish Monastery there. The abbott had been instructed to receive him and informed of the pricet's second anoste- | Europe. cy. He admitted the fact of Martin's retreat, but could effer no reacon for his conduct. The Protestant ciergy are much perplexed over the man's vagative, and not a little chagrined at the faith a ness of their protege.
